

Sandra Baumgartner

Presenter and reporter for Sky Sport News HD (Germany)

Sandra Baumgartner is a presenter and reporter for Sky Sport News HD in Germany since 2011 which is a 24/7 News channel about Sports. When Sandra is not presenting the news at the Sky studio, she is covering Formula One and German Bundesliga for Sky.

Sandra also worked as a presenter and a journalist for Motorvision GmbH specialized on TV car magazines production in Germany (2008 – 2011). She also produced and presented several TV programmes about DTM, the 24H race at Nürburgring, Daytona 500 or the IAA Motorshow in Frankfurt. Moreover, she presented the news on Motorvision which ran its own channel at Sky Germany.

Sandra started his career as a TV journalist directly after finishing school. She worked for TV stations like Pro7, Sat.1, RTL, VOX. She was born and raised in Munich.

Her significant experience in Motor Sport allows her to be one of the presenter of the Sport Conference which will be held in Munich.