

Stefano Domenicali

Stefano Domenicali was born on May 11, 1965 in Imola. After obtaining his high school diploma at the Liceo Scientifico di Imola, he obtained in 1991 a degree in Economics from the University of Bologna.

The same year he joined Ferrari, taking care of business and corporate tax, and also assumed the position of Director of Race Autodromo del Mugello. In 1993, Domenicali switched to GES first in administration and then in human resources management. In 1996, he also became responsible for Sponsor activities.

In 1998 he became Ferrari Team Manager and became Sports Director in early 2003. From 1 January 2008 he has been Team Principal. Stefano lives with his wife Silvia, by whom he has two children: Martin and Viola. Big fan of planes and the mountains, loves the sport at 360 °, in particular basketball, soccer and skiing.